VEDIC/INDIAN HOROSCOPES

Zodiac Forecast - Patrick Arundell Astrology
with Vedic Astrologer Nischal Chhaya

Aries 21 March - 20 April

2026 will be a rollercoaster of opportunities, health challenges, and foreign gains. Those in business will have an excellent start to the year. Profits will be high, and you will be able to achieve all of your goals. Furthermore, start-ups will be able to secure funding and experience long-term growth. The first half of the year will make the natives feel more secure and blessed with their partners. Moreover, you are generally very humble and do not try hard to be in the spotlight or seek recognition.

If your current vehicle is functioning well, it may not be prudent to invest in a new one at this time. In your love life, this year will take you into new relationships and give you a chance to connect with new people. Investments made in the past will yield good profits, and you may enjoy all your material comforts through them. Business people will be able to secure some important projects around the middle of 2026. If there were any past blockages of money, they will also get cleared.

This time is going to be good for students to fulfil their dreams; they will be ahead in getting the subjects of their choice. In terms of health, the situation will be normal at the beginning of the year. The first five months of the year can be positive for health. Your hard work will allow you to guide your business in a successful and profitable direction.

Those with jobs that involve travel or fieldwork, rather than office-based tasks, are likely to see results commensurate with their efforts. With consistent effort, you should be able to maintain a stable financial position throughout the year. The Aries Horoscope 2026 suggests that your married life is likely to be harmonious and fulfilling. If you have younger siblings, you may feel more emotional connection with them.

Taurus 21 April - 21 May

The beginning of the year could be a little heavy, and you may face unexpected expenses and health issues, but your luck is by your side and you will recover soon. When it comes to your career and professional life, you may experience significant growth and opportunities in the workplace. You will be immersed in love, kindness, and passion. It will be hard for you to stay away from your partner for long periods.

You might even decide to tie the knot this year. You may shine brightly, and your radiance will draw the right people into your social circle. If you are a student and planning to appear in a competitive exam, you will have a highly successful year. Those who were already troubled in a relationship at this time may benefit in the second half. There is a possibility of improvement in health during this period, especially if you were facing any chronic health-related problem. Changing lifestyle, exercising, and improving your diet can give you good results. Employees in sectors like telecommunications, courier services, and travel-related offices should continue to achieve positive results after July.

Your flexibility allows you to thrive in changing environments, and your vibrant, humorous personality makes you the heart of any room. While savings might be somewhat better in 2026, the overall prospects for income are promising. 2026 strongly supports matters related to land, property, and vehicles. Your bond with your in-laws will likely improve. You may feel more at ease with them, and positive, open conversations will strengthen that connection.

Your positive and sociable nature helps you build strong professional relationships and work effectively in collaborative settings. The second quarter of 2026 may test your patience by creating obstacles or delays. But these challenges will ultimately help you build a solid foundation. Implementing new technologies, fresh ideas, and improvements will strengthen your business.

Gemini 22 May - 21 June

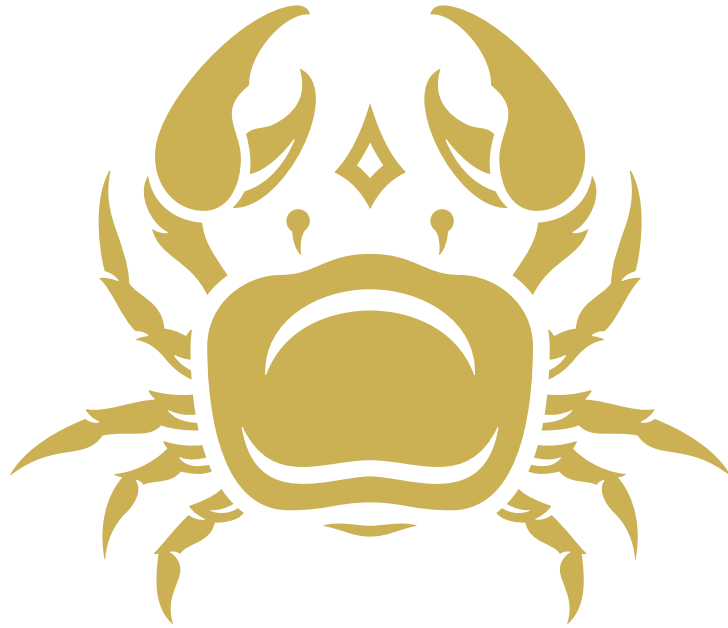

At the beginning of the year, favourable luck may lead to monetary assistance from elders. This time demands a little patience and faith, and you must exercise daily and take a balanced diet to stay healthy. As the year progresses, you will gain multiple career opportunities, possibly from a foreign land. You might purchase luxurious items that you have wanted for a long time. This will increase your material security. Married couples should enjoy this period as some joyful activities will take over. There may be chances of a foreign trip. You may get a chance to go on a long-distance journey.

The workplace environment will improve, and any hidden competitors or obstacles will lose their grip. In terms of career, it will be a time to gain work abroad. Interaction with people and friends will increase, and this year you will also get the support of elder brothers. This year will further improve the prospects for finding a spouse. In terms of marital life, 2026 is expected to bring positive results.

To improve the situation on the family front, it is important to engage in logical discussions and avoid unnecessary arguments. Married natives may begin the year on a highly affectionate note and, with time, emotional intimacy and understanding will increase. Your ability to multitask is impressive, though it can sometimes lead to distractions. If you are involved in a family business or have partners, their support will help you seize new business opportunities. You might also feel inclined to spend on spiritual activities during this period. This year will be especially beneficial for those in the government sector. Risk management will be especially important throughout the year as you might encounter some challenges.

This year is conducive to enhancing your financial condition and seizing opportunities related to wealth and property. Gradually, you will have better control and there may be something promising for you in store around the end of 2026.

Cancer 22 June - 23 July

At the beginning of 2026, the stars suggest you may face increased expenses and stress. Therefore, you are advised to manage your expenses properly and try to remain stress-free. Positive shifts in your life direction are likely to occur. This year can be good for building a home or moving into a new house. Your romantic relationships may experience ups and downs in the middle of the year. After that, by the end of the year, situations may start to improve, and you can witness an increase in intimacy.

Some Cancer natives may need to deal with separation from their beloved due to some reason. You'll be in demand socially, and new people will be drawn to your charm. This year may also bring ups and downs for your health. If you already suffer from a chronic illness, it may worsen at this time. Hence, you are advised to take special care of yourself. The year will be favourable for the people involved in business. With your confidence and energy, you'll also be able to perform better and work faster.

Students may face a few distractions that can prevent them from studying. However, gradually the situation will improve, and you'll experience better focus. Your creativity will flourish, and you'll feel a sense of peace in your surroundings. If we talk about your family life, it may start with some stress and negativity. There can be ideological differences among the family members, which will be visible.

This is the year for progress in career and business. You may get good results from your hard work. You'll have multiple responsibilities on your shoulders. However, you'll be able to fulfil them with your hard work. In terms of your career, this year is likely to be moderate. There may be ups and downs, but you are not advised to give up or quit during this time.

Leo 24 July - 23 August

The year 2026 brings a chance to embrace your creativity and leadership skills more deeply. Relationships may also bring joy, with singles possibly finding someone with whom they share creative or professional interests. Married couples may find themselves reconnecting and appreciating their partner's individuality. Your sense of humour and ability to bring light-heartedness to serious situations can make you a source of comfort and joy to others. If you are in education, especially higher studies, this year holds positive outcomes. You might get opportunities for study abroad or gain recognition for your efforts. Students may find themselves interested in subjects related to art, management, or technology. There may be health problems in the second half of the year.

Conditions may suddenly deteriorate. So, do not be careless about your health at this time. In terms of property-related matters, the year looks highly beneficial. There are chances of you buying property or land. If you're considering a new business, you'll likely see promising beginnings around mid-year, but careful planning is necessary. Those already in business may look to expand their enterprise and find fruitful outcomes.

You're likely to gain support from your family and may experience positive developments in family relationships. In terms of finances, the year appears to be somewhat moderate. While there will be financial gains, expenses may also remain high. Maintaining a balance between income and expenditure will be important.

At the start of the year, your married life may face some challenges. There could be misunderstandings or ideological differences between you and your spouse. Singles may encounter opportunities to enter into romantic relationships, some of which could lead to long-term commitments. Despite some challenges in your career or financial matters, your optimism will help you to overcome obstacles.

Virgo 24 August - 23 September

At the beginning of the year, some minor problems may persist, but overall, the time is favourable. If you are in business, then there will be many opportunities to grow, and you can get respect in society. You may also plan to expand your business abroad.

If you are involved in speculative ventures, it is advisable to exercise caution. Hasty investments could lead to losses. There may be some ups and downs in your career in the middle of the year. Challenges may arise, and you might experience sudden obstacles at work. If you're seeking a job change, opportunities are likely to come your way. This year, it is necessary to avoid falling into the trap of showing off. Otherwise, unnecessary expenses may disrupt your financial stability. There is a possibility that some financial challenges may arise, but on the other hand, you will also find new opportunities for financial gains.

At this time, you need to maintain a balanced diet and avoid junk food, as there may be some issues with digestion. You can look forward to stronger relationships with your family and spouse. You may also get a chance to spend quality time with your loved ones, bringing joy and peace to your personal life.

Married life will be blissful for Virgo natives. If you are unmarried, then you can get married this year. Those who are already in a relationship may move towards marriage. In the third quarter of the year, you may encounter some legal or property-related issues. There might be some minor disputes over ancestral property. However, these issues are likely to be resolved by the year-end. There is also a possibility of travel this year, which may bring you financial gains. By the end of 2026, your health will also show improvement.

Libra 24 September - 23 October

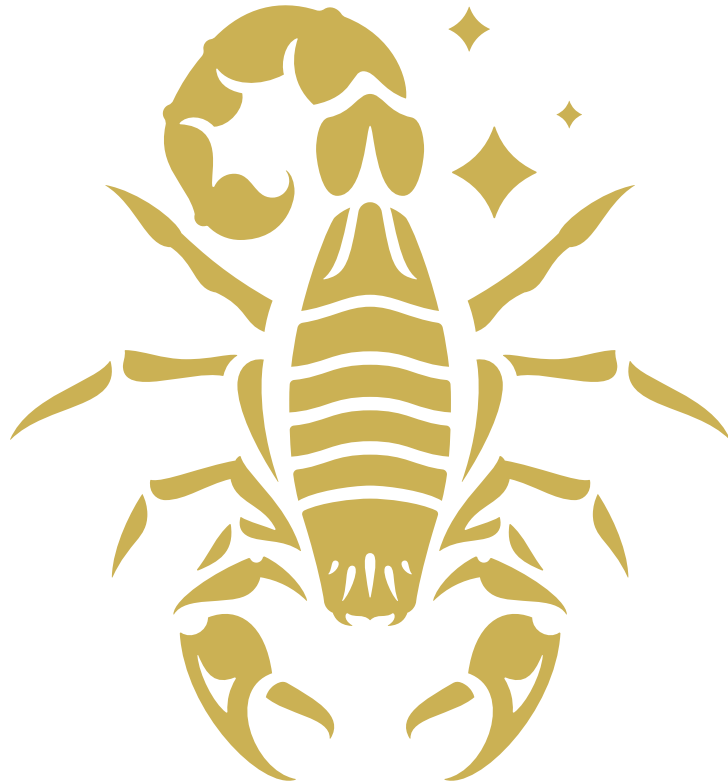

From career developments to personal relationships, the insights offered will guide you through transformative periods, by harnessing the power of technology. You will therefore persist in achieving your objectives in spite of small setbacks. You may experience somewhat better outcomes this year in business-related endeavours. That is to say, even though you performed better this year than last. This year can be somewhat advantageous in terms of employment. This implies that 2026 will see the beginning of the resolution of last year's issues. Health and fitness in 2026 are shaped by a need for emotional and physical harmony.

However, some past emotional patterns may resurface, disrupting your relationship matters, but open communication helps resolve them. If small tensions arise in your love life or family, stay calm and talk things through, especially in the third quarter of 2026. This period is ideal for evaluating your professional trajectory and making informed decisions about your future. You can plan new investments and make good profit.

Whether you're already working with a partner or considering joining forces, 2026 supports growth and shared success. Long-term investments look more stable, especially after an auspicious planetary transit in the second half of the year. You may have differences with your father or an elderly person, but the tension will not last long, and you will soon find their support. It seems likely that this will enhance your romantic life since it will eliminate or drastically lessen long-standing issues and resentment over trivial matters.

When it comes to property and construction, this year may be generally advantageous. In the second half of the year, there may be some auspicious occasion in the family on which you will need to spend. 2026 will also raise your academic achievement because it will typically result in beneficial outcomes for you. We can conclude that while the year 2026 might present some challenges for you at work, overall the outcome will be favourable.

Scorpio 24 October - 22 November

The year 2026 will be marked by a blend of ambition, reflection, and deep emotional insight. The credit for your success will go to your magnetic persona and wise decision-making, enhanced by the influence of auspicious planets. There will be many alluring moments when you enjoy being in the company of your partner. If you are working, you will add some new elements to your role, which can also increase profitability.

If you want to start a new business, then this time will be very beneficial for you. A significant improvement in your financial situation may bring positive changes to your lifestyle. Likewise, purchasing a disputed house or apartment, even if it's on sale, would not be suitable. The second half of the year brings recognition and leadership roles in your career. There will be expenses in the second quarter of this year, but despite this, you can maintain balance. Patience will be required as legal issues or family disputes might delay outcomes.

Commodities are not recommended until the last six months of the year. If you are going through some miscommunication in the family, then you can resolve it during this time. The year will continue to provide positive outcomes in this area as well if we discuss vehicle-related matters. Your education also appears to be going well for most of 2026.

If you continue to work hard, ignore difficulties, and give your best, your employment will stay secure. There can be chances of your marriage. If there is any discussion in your family, the time may come to decide in that direction in the first half of this year. This will give you mental peace and freshness, which will positively affect your health. The first part of the year can be difficult for children.

Sagittarius 23 November - 21 December

2026 suggests that you can trust yourself to navigate your career through any ups and downs and come up with innovative solutions to problems. Investing in your business or trying new financial plans is also favourable. You might get some benefits from your in-laws' side as well. Those in the business sector are expected to have a very steady year, with overall growth in their ventures. This time will also be auspicious for those who want to do business in partnership. There may be opportunities for promotion in your job as well, and if you are interested in any investment plan, that too can be successful.

As the year advances, open conversations bring people closer, and singles seek deeper emotional bonds. Your income sources may diversify, and you might experience a notable increase in earnings. In terms of vehicle comfort, this year may potentially provide inconsistent results. Investing in a new vehicle as soon as possible would be wise. You can plan to implement new methods, ideas, and policies, which can give a new direction to your business. The final quarter of the year will be more favourable for resolving these matters and taking necessary steps forward. Mentally, your mind will be in turmoil.

There will be many thoughts, which can give you dissatisfaction and restlessness in the third quarter. Regarding food habits, you must ensure that you eat light, nutritious, and balanced meals. You'll also find ways to recover quickly or gain benefits in the long run because of them. Obstructions and challenges will gradually come down in your studies now.

Your old immovable assets or investments may bring good financial rewards this time around. Whether single or partnered, heartfelt conversations and emotional support come naturally.

You may develop values and ethics in your life, but you may lose sight of them as your career and work progress.

Capricorn 22 December - 20 January

This year, you should be careful not to accept any opportunity to make quick money illegally. Some addictions could become problematic in the second half of the year and must be addressed. The latter part of the year could bring success in stock market ventures, and investments in new vehicles or property are likely.

However, it is advisable to avoid taking large loans or borrowing from banks during this time. Overall, the year will be highly beneficial financially. 2026 is a year where transformation is not only possible but also inevitable, as long as it is guided by purpose and clarity. These planetary combinations push you to think about past relationships, helping you learn and grow from them. In love, honest conversations can improve bonds, while singles may be drawn to more mature, stable partners.

Young adults who are just starting out in life are also likely to make friends and find love. These new ideas will pave the way for the expansion of your business and the opportunity for growth and success. At this time, there will be good conversations between you and your partner, and both of you will successfully understand each other. Entrepreneurs will have an incredible year in 2026. Avoid risks and finish up past financial matters.

Career progress is steady but slow—consistency matters. In the second quarter of 2026, patience will be needed as outcomes may be delayed. Emotional self-care and balanced routines help you stay grounded. Career-wise, your earlier efforts will bring growth. This year brings positive improvements in your physical and mental health. You will be more mentally balanced and physically healthier. The family atmosphere will be one of happiness and peace, and you will play an important role in completing shared tasks. Those in a romantic relationship with a co-worker might receive excellent outcomes.

Aquarius 21 January - 19 February

This year, you must pay attention to your health and adopt a balanced lifestyle. At this time, you should make greater efforts to improve your fitness. In your job, you may find it challenging to maintain harmony with your superiors. In the second quarter, you may also face disappointment, and your funds could get blocked due to the impact of Saturn on your finances. Therefore, you are advised to make only risk-free investments and avoid taking or giving loans this year. Learning improves with clearer thinking, but major changes should wait. Focus on emotional wellness with rest and balanced routines.

By focusing on the quality of your work and maintaining consistent efforts, you'll align with the favourable planetary positions that support prosperity and progress in your career. You'll be able to take a sigh of relief as long-standing issues disappear. Additionally, there is a chance for new relationships to form. The feeling of stability and love in your relationship will be strong, and the possibility of marriage will grow.

If single, a bold, confident person may attract you, but check in with your feelings first. Yoga and meditation are required for your mental health, and you will be able to avoid stress and anxiety. Your adventurous side will take the lead, and you will not be afraid to take risks. Your magnetic personality makes you stand out in a crowd, and people are naturally drawn to your energy and positivity. You are likely to travel extensively and enjoy cultural diversity around the globe. Business owners may face initial hurdles such as financial delays or competition.

If you are married, you will be passionate about your marital life; however, maintain a balance between work and personal life. Loved ones will offer emotional support, and your home atmosphere will be peaceful and creative. This is a good time to refine your workflow and organise shared responsibilities.

Pisces 20 February - 20 March

2026 will be chaotic yet constructive, bringing a transformative combination of confusion and growth through valuable life lessons. This year will protect your emotional and physical health by embracing gentle routines. Educational curiosity is high. Challenges will start to resolve, and you will achieve your goals more easily.

You may also earn through multiple sources. You will feel lucky as the positive forces around you push you towards prosperity. The position of the planets indicates that you will move towards financial growth with your hard work and wise plans. Natives in the job sector may face some initial challenges, but they will be able to overcome obstacles and defeat their rivals. 2026 brings immense enthusiasm and energy in terms of love and attraction. You will want to spend more time with your loved one, and your relationship will become even stronger. Seeing your hard work and dedication, you may also get the support of senior officials and colleagues.

This time will be favourable for you to gain respect and prestige at the workplace. Any auspicious work may also be completed in your family at this time, such as the marriage of a relative, the arrival of a new member in the household, or another happy occasion. Be cautious with spending and stay focused at work.

Emotional rest and renewal are essential. You are incredibly loyal and generous to those you care about and enjoy making your loved ones feel special. You may find a more supportive workplace environment, with chances for overseas assignments positively impacting career growth. Teamwork will benefit both career and studies. Financial discussions and shared money management bring stability. Investments in land, real estate, and property will start yielding profits, contributing to a rise in your income. This period will favour those who have been working hard and waiting for results.
